Raiders Ransom 1 Emily Diamand - hccc.suny.edu

Readers who enjoyed Emily Diamand's début novel, "Raiders' Ransom" (aka "Flood Child") will be delighted to know that Lilly Melkun's tale continues in "Raiders' Ransome: Flood and Fire" more or less where the earlier book left off. The great battle between the Raiders and English may be over, but the strife is far from over and Lilly, Cat and Lexy (and, of course PSAI) are anything but safe, while Zeph also has trouble to contend with as he struggles to restore order to the Angel Isling ...

Raider's Ransom: Flood and Fire: Diamand, Emily ...

Debut novelist Emily Diamand comes out swinging with such a book as that. "Raiders' Ransom" is a post-apocalyptic tale of a future Britain, but it eschews moralizing in favor of a slam-bang setting. Better make sure the edge of your seat is nicely padded. You and your kids are going to find yourselves perched there for the majority of this tale.
