The Veil – Dragon Age Inquisition Codex. I detest this notion that the Veil is some manner of invisible “curtain” that separates the world of the living from the world of the spirits (whether it be called the Fade or the Beyond is a matter of racial politics I refuse to indulge in at the moment). There is no “this side” and “that side” when it comes to the Veil.

It's been a while and I've been dragging my feet to the finish line for second degree initiation. The boards for my elemental magic circle have been sitting at 75% completion in my basement for months, partially painted. Like my last project, the altar, the beginning phase was exciting and fun. Cutting and joining the...

Is Initiation Even Necessary? – Codex Astarte

An antiphon and versicle are sung by the choir, followed by the prayer of the Veil of St. Veronica. A set of silver bells are then rung, and then the Veil is shown to the faithful from the balcony. (Fr. Z refers to this event in his Sunday LENTCaZT podcast meditation.) The prayer of the Veil as currently used at St. Peter's is as follows:

Remember, Sylvia and I are 90-percent alike. If "I" was on the other side of the "Veil" and "Sylvia" was here, you'd be reading very similar information from HER. It's those of us on THIS side of the "Veil" who are trapped in the illusion. All Time is Now. All Points are One. All things ARE possible.
